

分区区分

新增面积: 1000

Construction of the new building is in progress. The site is divided into several zones, each with a different color-coded roof. The new building is located on the right side of the site. The construction is progressing well, and the new building is expected to be completed in the near future.